

MAUREEN M. MORTON, PH.D.

mmorton@starkstate.edu

EDUCATION

Ph.D. in Applied Mathematics (Numerical Analysis & Scientific Computing) June 2010
Michigan State University, East Lansing, MI

B.A. in Mathematics/Slavic Languages & Literatures May 2003
University of Kansas, Lawrence, KS

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Returning Student Advisor 2016-Present
Stark State College, North Canton, OH

- Advise returning students in registration for classes, plan schedules to meet major and prerequisite requirements (various majors), assist with change of major forms

Co-Coordinator of Your Story, Your Community, Your College 2014 - Present
Student Support Services & Interfaith Campus Ministry, Stark State College, North Canton, OH

- Envisioned, founded, and implemented a community-building program for students, faculty, and staff

Mathematics Instructor (Adjunct, ~12 credits/sem since Spring 2016) 2013-Present
Stark State College, North Canton, OH

- Courses taught: Calculus, College Algebra, Trigonometry, Statistics, Precalculus, Math for Technology
- Tutored developmental and college level mathematics in Math Emporium and Learning Center
- Taught Timken Early College High School students since 2016
- Presented Mathematics breakout session for local high schoolers at We Are IT day, March 2015
- Designed and taught Matchless Measures math workshop for Kids' College, 2014

Instructor for Adult Degree-Completion; Mathematics (Adjunct) 2014-2015; 2019
Malone Management Studies; Dept. of Science & Mathematics, Malone University, Canton, OH

- Taught accelerated Survey of Business Algebra for adult degree-completion students

Volunteer Assistant for Adults with Developmental Disabilities 2012-2013
First Christian Day Services, Canton, OH

Recreational Coordinator for Adults and Teens with Developmental Disabilities 2011-2012
POWERcorps, a program of Family & Community Services and Portage County Board of DD, Ravenna, OH

- Planned and implemented recreational, social, and educational activities for adult and teen consumers in groups of 6 - 40 (as team lead and as support staff, >900 hours service)
- Led professional development training session for co-workers

Information Desk Receptionist 2011-2012
Kent Medical Arts Building, Kent, OH

- Assisted patients and visitors through Robinson Memorial Hospital (>180 volunteer hours)

Russian Language Instructor (Adjunct) 2010-2011
Kent State University, Kent, OH

- Taught Russian conversation classes (Elementary I, II; Intermediate II); assessed student progress

Mathematics Graduate Instructor 2004-2010
Michigan State University, East Lansing, MI

- Taught College Algebra, Survey of Calculus I/II; assessed student progress; tutored a full range of undergraduate mathematics courses (such as Trigonometry, Algebra, Calculus, Differential Equations, Analysis)
- Coordinated standardization of course plans and exams for Survey of Calculus II instructors, 2009

Orientation Facilitator for International Teaching Assistants August 2009
Michigan State University Teaching Assistant Programs, East Lansing, MI

- Co-facilitated trainings and discussions about cultural educational differences
- Mentored and observed practice teaching sessions for new international TAs